Leadership in Our Times

The lingering feelings that affect our perceptions about leadership skills [of inspiring leaders] are usually the intangibles: trust, intelligence, loyalty, commitment, love and courage. ... This type of leadership learning requires a different approach than the well-refined learning methods used to improve tangible job skills. ...

Leadership Assessments

Who you are is how you lead.

Self-awareness is the cornerstone of emotional intelligence. And, emotional competencies correlate highly with success in work and life.

Yet, self-assessment without verification from direct reports, colleagues and managers can result in self-deception.

LMH Services can provide a carefully crafted blend of self assessments and 360-degree feedback to catalyze or revitalize your leadership, customized to your organization's leadership framework.
